TREES - A BOUNTIFUL CROP GROWS TO ENHANCE THE SITE

Across an expanse of more than 30 acres and reaching majestically outward and upward, thousands of young trees and seedlings grow, waiting patiently their turn to make Fermilab a more beautiful place for employees and users to work.

One of the many projects of Site Services and Roads and Grounds, this gesture of providing tender loving care for more than 1,100 young trees and 4,750 seedlings not only will enhance the site in the decades ahead but also will save the Laboratory money because the trees will be home-grown. The young trees - many of them planted the last two years and this spring, but some as much as six or seven years ago - will be replanted around the site when they are mature enough for future Arbor Days and for other landscape projects.

"The tree nursery is part of a comprehensive land management effort intended to improve and beautify our landscape," explained John Paulk, head of Site Services.

This tree nursery is on the east side of Eola Road across from Site 55. Twenty-seven varieties of young trees are now growing there. Many of them are expected to be ready for transplanting to permanent homes in three or four years. The seedlings, thriving on a patch just south of the larger trees, should be sturdy enough in seven or eight years, according to Bob Hall, the manager responsible for their expert care.

The seedlings and the number of them include black walnut (750), hickory (500), ash (500), pin oak (250), red oak (250), red pine (500), white pine (500), red twig dogwood (500), Washington hawthorn (500) and honeysuckle (500).

Here's a list of the larger trees: Colorado spruce, amur maple, Clump River birch, Ohio buckeye, ginkgo biloba, shade-master locust, sunburst locust, "Green-spire" linden, crimson king maple, royal red maple, "Summer Shade" maple, corkscrew willow, "niobe" weeping willow, "Red Sunset" maple, "Green Mountain" sugar maple, regular sugar maple, dwarf Jonathon apple, dwarf McIntosh apple, dwarf red delicious apple, dwarf winesap apple, dwarf golden delicious apple, Maxine pear, white angel flowering crab, Van Esteltine flowering crab, Viburnum, Acer Rubrum red maple and pin oak.

REMINDER ABOUT NEW CAFETERIA HOURS

The new cafeteria hours for the evening meal beginning Monday, July 6, will be from 5 to 6 p.m. No evening meal will be served on weekends. This change is one of many steps taken by the Accommodations Office to reduce costs. And don't forget, the cafeteria will be closed July 3-5.

WHAT-EVERS BOWL TO TOP

The What-Evers team finished first in the Fermilab Monday Night Bowling league. Team members were Denise McAuliff, captain, Peggy McAuliff, Janet Thoman, Angie Velasquez and Gil McAuliff.

They paced a pack of 12 teams with an overall record of 168-77. Finishing second was Pat's Hombres, 145-100, and third was Geri's Boys, 141-104.

The 1981-82 officers for the League are Rich Krause, president; Curt Owen, vice president; Jackie Coleman, secretary; and Joyce Dieter, treasurer. The outgoing officers are the same, except for Ralph Ovitt, who was the president.

MAGNUM FORCE FINISHES FIRST

Magnum Force finished on top in Fermilab's Wednesday Night Bowling League with an impressive record of 90 wins and 50 losses.

Coming in second with an 88-52 performance was Skol. Los Perros Calientes' 81.5-58.5 record was good enough for third place. Fourteen teams competed. (Scoring is different for the Laboratory's two bowling leagues.)

Magnum Force team members were Wally Zimmerman, Anne Zimmerman, Terry O'Brien, Tom Hickey and Paul Kurylo, captain. The League's 1981-82 officers are Randy Schenk, president; Jesse Guerra, vice president; Sherry Hickey, treasurer; and Joanne Hrycyk, secretary.

The outgoing officers are Ed Justice, president; Gary Smith, vice president; Rose Muth, treasurer; and Barb Kristen, secretary.

THE SUPER BOWL OF BOWLING

The What-Evers, champions of the Monday Night Bowling League, beat Magnum Force, champions of the Wednesday Night Bowling League, for the world championship of Fermilab.

They competed at Warrenville Bowl in Warrenville, the home grounds of the Monday League, and at Bowling Green in West Chicago, the home grounds of the Wednesday League. The What-Evers took two games and the series to one game at each site for the world title.

NEW RECREATION INTERN

Meet Patty Rohrbacher. She's Fermilab's recreation intern who will be with the Laboratory this spring and summer for 15 weeks. Patty will be working with Helen McCulloch, recreation coordinator.

Patty is a student at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale where she is majoring in commercial recreation. She expects to get her bachelor of science degree Aug. 8, "then go out in the real world and try to find a job." The internship here is part of the university's curriculum for this degree.

HELEN McCULLOCH ELECTED TO BOARD

Helen McCulloch, Fermilab's recreation coordinator, has been elected to a two-year term on the Board of Directors of the National Industrial Recreation Association. She will represent Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.

McCulloch has been a NIRA member for five years. She is a past president of the National Accelerator Recreation Committee (NALREC) and is presently secretary of the Chicago Association for Recreation and Employee Services.

NIRA is a non-profit organization dedicated to employee recreation, fitness and services programs. Established in 1941, NIRA has more than 2,500 organizations in the U.S., Canada and Mexico.

FAMILY PICNIC TO HAVE SWIM MEET

Start conditioning yourselves now for the free style swim meet that will be held at the Fermilab 1981 family picnic July 25. The meet, for everyone from 5 to 105, will begin at 2 p.m. at the pool in the Village. Winners will each get a first place blue ribbon, and other competitors will each get a ribbon to show they were in there trying. To register for the meet, contact the Fermilab Recreation Office, WH1E, Ext. 3126.

PICNIC AREA FOR POOL USERS

A picnic area for pool users has been set up adjacent to the swimming pool in the Village. This picnic site is for pool patrons only, said Helen McCulloch, Fermilab recreation coordinator. The site will be available for the entire pool season, and if it's successful, may be reopened next season. Food will be allowed in the picnic area only.

DIRECTORS IN FUN RUN

Walter Massey, director of the Argonne National Laboratory, and Leon Lederman, director of Fermilab, will participate in a fun run July 9.

Organized by the Fermilab and Argonne Running Clubs, the run, open to all runners, will begin at 6 p.m. at the Village Barn, proceed to Wilson Hall, then end at the Barn, a distance of about 4 miles. Afterwards, everyone can enjoy watermelon and talk about their successes. Showers and lockers are available; runners should bring their own locks.

Rick Coleman

POOL TOURNAMENT ROLLS TO HALT WITH COLEMAN ON TOP

Rick Coleman finished on top of the Fermilab 1981 pool tournament. He is an experimenter with the E-701 collaboration and is associated with the University of Rochester.

He beat Mike Kerwin, who took second. Placing third was Mike Tartaglia. Twenty-four competitors started in the first round, among them was Jackie Coleman, wife of the 1981 champion. Unfortunately, she didn't make it past the first round. Rick has been playing since his teenage days.

The tournament was held at the Users Center in the Village.
